2010 Scottsdale Show Photography Contest

Official Entry Rules

This contest is sponsored by the Amateur Committee of the Arabian Horse Association of Arizona. Winners are selected by Judges and People's Choice. Judging occurs prior to the display of the photos. People's Choice is determined by people viewing the photos during the show and casting a vote for their favorite. Awards are announced Saturday, February 20, 2010.

Subject:

Photographs taken of Arabian and/or Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian Horses, that capture the moment in the following categories: "Foaling Around –Everybody Loves a Baby," "What a Clown," "Beautiful Arabians", and "Horse and Buddy."

Divisions:

Adult -- 18 years and older.

Judging - Winners are determined by how well the entry illustrates the category, the quality and composition of the image, and presentation.

Judges - A panel of three judges is used. Entries are reviewed before judging to make sure the photographs meet entry requirements (see below). The panel is composed of professionals who work in the photography field, dignitaries, and representatives of the Arabian Horse Association. Judging will take place prior to the start of the show.

People's Choice – These awards are determined after the photos are displayed. People viewing the photos vote for their favorite. Winners are announced on the last Saturday of the show. Awards are given Champion, Reserve Champion and Top Ten.
